☞ The progressives seem to think that their opponents are very much afraid of agitating the slavery question in the ensuing elections. We will see who is afraid of it. All we ask is, that they will not be afraid of the discussion; that they will not invoke other means than free discussion; that they will abide the result of an open canvass and a free election under the Constitution of Kentucky. It is for the people of Kentucky to say what disposition they will make of the colored population in this State; what their status shall be; and it is not the business of anybody else. Both the people of this State and their representativee have stood firmly by the Constitution and laws. They have performed every duty. What they will do about slavery, it is theirs to decide. We hear a great deal about the voice of the country; but in the reserved rights of the States the country has no right to a voice, and it is sheer impertinence to tell us that we must succumb to King Majority in other States, and set up their conscience, which is only another name for their party ambition, as a standard we are to be governed by.

We had as well be ruled by one King as another, by a single monarch as by the many, if discretion and not Constitutions and laws is to be the guide. Wonderful progress these progressives are making. They are marching on to a centralized despotism. The whole is to rule each part; and after a while we shall take a vote and decide what each individual shall think, what religions creed is right, or whether the three angles of a triangle really make two right angles or something else.

This question of slavery in Kentucky does not belong to New England, but to Kentucky. The people of the former were as much opposed to heresy and witches as they are now to slavery, and they showed about as much sense then as they do now.

Now, we say, let all the progressives proceed and agitate. All they have to say has been repeated over and over again by Lloyd Garrison, Abby Kelley, Wendell Phillips, Beecher & Co. Every intelligent man in the State has heard or read it all. They can only repeat it over again, boast of their progress—that is, of their self-conceit and self-righteousness. They can tell Kentuckians nothing about slavery that Kentuckians don't know, that they have not thought of. All they can tell us is, that it is progress; that loyal people are determined that slavery must die; that something they call conscience dictates it. To judge what sort of thing this nondescript is, called conscience, we have only to recollect what it has done in Kentucky. What crimes have not been committed in the name of conscience! Sorry prospect for a country when empty self-conceit babbles of progress, end politicians and shoddyites preach theology and conscience. Let them bring this question of slavery into the canvass this year, and prove by their conduct that they have faith in the majority they talk so much about. Let them stand by the discussion and abide the result, and not resort to lawless and sinister means that have been resorted to by this very religious, conscientious and progressive party. They have shown by their deeds, which speak louder than words, how little faith they have in majorities. If they have repented and intend to reform, let them now show it. We had as well notify them now that this cant about conscience, justice and verdicte of majorities, is not argument.

THE SOUTH.

Suspicious Rumors Circulating in Richmond—Produce Withheld from the City—Speculations on the Attempt to Cut off Lee's Retreat—Speech of Robert Tombs, of Georgia—Demand for the Heads of Incompetent Officials—General Singleton in Richmond—What will be Done with the South in Case of Subjugation, &c.

IMPORTANT RUMORS IN RICHMOND—THEIR EFFECT UPON THE COUNTRY PEOPLE OF VIRGINIA.

[From the Richmond Dispatch, March 2.]

Owing to certain groundless reports, which have gained a circulation in Richmond for the past few days, a large number of country people have been deterred from bringing their products to market, and, as a consequence, but little is offered at those places for sale. That further injury may not ensue from these rumors, we hereby contradict them upon the very highest official authority.

THE PROBABLE "YANKEE" ATTEMPT TO CUT OFF THE RETREAT OF LEE—PREDICTED FAILURE—EARLY AND MUD THE OPPOSING FORCES.

[From the Richmond Examiner, March 2.]

The latest Northern papers, gratuitously assuming that Lee must retreat from before Richmond, and that his march must be by way of Lynchburg, and in the direction of Kentucky or East Tennessee, announce with confidence that measures have been taken for the destruction of the Virginia and Tennessee railway. As they have but a small available force beyond the western terminus of that work, and as the common roads in that quarter of the world are impracticable at the present time from the unprecedented frosts, rains and thaws of this winter, it is reasonable to assume that the intended movement upon the railroad must be from the east; from Winchester to Staunton this force would have the advantage of an excellent macadamized turnpike road. General Early is, however, encamped somewhere on its line of march in such force as might effectually check the expedition. If its numbers should be so great, however, as to force Early back, then another obstacle will meet it immediately after passing Staunton, for there the rock road terminates and mud roads begin, and it is quite probable that pontoon bridges would be needed for other uses than the passage of rivers and mountain torrents. The peculiarity of roads in mountainous regions is, that they traverse the valleys and lowest depressions of country, and cannot, of course, hang upon the ridges. During the winter and wet seasons there is a continuous ooze of water from the foot of hills and mountains, which keeps the roads always deep with mud and mire. This is the state of things upon which the enemy would embark on passing Staunton. And as the distance from there to Buchanan, where another macadamized road begins, is sixty miles, it is a problem for calculation how long it would require for a large cavalry force, dragging artillery and pontoon bridges along with it, to accomplish a march of sixty miles, over roads deep with mire, at a season of the year when they are at their very worst. A further element of the proposition would be how long the journey would occupy, with an enemy in front, who, if failing to check the advance, would at least delay it, and, by passing over the road in advance, put it in the very worst possible condition for the force pressing on behind. From Buchanan the railroad might be reached over bad roads in a day's march, or the enemy might pursue the macadamized road to Salem, distant some thirty miles; but it is plain that the period necessary to accomplish the march would be sufficient to afford time to intercept and thwart the whole project. If, however, the enemy should not strike for Buchanan on leaving Staunton, but make directly for Lynchburg, distant about seventy miles, he would still be so much delayed by the condition of the roads that an ample force could be interposed for the protection of that city. The same difficulty would also obstruct him if he were to turn off at right angles at Staunton and cross the Blue Ridge in the direction of Charlottesville, Gordonsville and Richmond. Looking at all the circumstances of the case, we think it quite probable that the enemy would find that the expedition would be premature, and likely to end in failure if not in grief. The absurdity of endeavoring thus to intercept General Lee's retreat at this early day is amusing.

GENERAL SINGLETON IN RICHMOND—HIS MISSION COMMERCIAL, NOT POLITICAL—THE NORTH ANXIOUS TO OPEN TRADE WITH THE SOUTH.

[From the Richmond Enquirer, March 2.]

It is stated by one of our city papers that Mr. Singleton returns to Richmond upon commercial, not pacific purposes, and that cotton, not peace, is what Mr. Singleton is really after. It would be well, therefore, to drop all reference to this gentleman as a peace man, and hereafter recognize him as the cotton commissioner, or so-called peace messenger. Trading cotton for bacon is a business that requires no mystery, and if Mr. Lincoln desires cotton and tobacco, and is willing to exchange for them provisions at proper prices, why not send his bacon minister here openly and avow his purpose to drive a trade even amidst the din of war? The spectacle of two nations fighting and trading at one and the same time is novel, and Europe must again recognize the great step made by this country in war trade as well as in war implements.

If the United States has outstripped the world in iron-clad ships, big guns, great armies and huge debts, it has also taken the first step toward a big trade with its enemy. Having blockaded all the ports and effectually shut Europe out from the great staples of these States, it monopolizes commerce by opening a neutral ground for trade. This is said to be Mr. Singleton's and Judge Hughes' business. Trade is what these people want; but whether they want trade only with the Yankees is a matter we think extremely doubtful. Perhaps the Yankees may yet be compelled to open Norfolk as a neutral port. It is not probable the European nations will permit the United States to blockade the coast and then open the inland trade, which is the effect of a law now existing in the United States. The particular mission of Mr. Singleton being one of bacon and beef, as well as of cotton and tobacco, has no political significance whatever. His movements are therefore of no importance. But, at the same time, the people do not relish his return to Richmond.

[From the Richmond Dispatch, March 1.]

It has been announced by the Yankee press, and the announcement has been published by us, that General Singleton and Judge Hughes had obtained passports from Mr. Lincoln to visit Richmond. The Yankee papers said the object of their mission was to convince the rebels of the hopelessness of further resistance. They arrived at Varina on Monday, but the freshet in the river, by preventing the running of our boats, has delayed their arrival in Richmond. These visits of Northern gentry are always covered with such a cloud of mystery by our officials that it is impossible to learn anything positively about them; and we are left, generally, to conjecture as to their objects. We heard on yesterday a report about this Singleton-Hughes visit that, coming as it did from a trustworthy source, surprised us not a little. It is said that the object of these gentlemen's visit is purely commercial, their business being nothing more nor less than to make arrangements for buying cotton and tobacco for their government and selling to our government beef and bacon. It is a queer story; we give it as we hear it.

[From the Richmond Examiner, March 2.]

Gen. Singleton arrived here yesterday from the North on a second visit to Richmond, and is stopping at the Spotswood Hotel. Judge Hughes, of Indiana, who was named in the Northern papers as his companion in this visit, did not come through the lines. Gen. Singleton is understood to have returned here on private business, although rumor will have it that he is connected with some new edition of the oft-repeated story of peace negotiations.

THE SITUATION BEFORE PETERSBURG UNCHANGED—FIGHTING REGARDED IMMINENT.

[From the Richmond Enquirer, March 2.]

The situation at Petersburg is unchanged. Scores of deserters, coming into our lines every night, indicates that fighting is imminent. The roads are still too bad for serious movements of troops.

RESIGNATION OF WM. C. RIVES, AS SENATOR FROM VIRGINIA.

[From the Richmond Dispatch, March 2.]

Fellow-Citizens: The shattered condition of my health with my advanced age, considerably transcending the three-score years and ten allotted to man, having disqualified me for the discharge of the representative duties which you did me the honor two years ago by an unsolicited choice to confide to me, I feel constrained by a sense of duty and propriety to resign into your hands the trust I then received from you, and which I am now physically incapable of executing. I have honestly and faithfully endeavored to serve you according to the measure of my ability, but, as I apprehended when you called me from my retirement, my strength and constitution have utterly sunk under the attempt. For the last six weeks I have been confined to my bed by a severe and complicated illness, and the consequence has been, much to my chagrin and regret, that you have been misrepresented in Congress upon some of the most important questions which have occupied the attention of that body during its present session. At my time of life, and with the shock already received from repeated attacks of disease, brought on in the public service, during the last three or four years, I have no right to expect, whatever may be the result of my present illness, that in the future I shall be better able to serve you than at present. Your interests and the interests of the great cause in which we are engaged are of too important a character to be committed to so precarious and feeble a guardianship. The labors of the present session of Congress are drawing to a close, and the period of the general State elections being now at hand, when my place can be supplied without putting you to the trouble of a special election, I have thou ht the moment most suitable for resigning into your hands, as I now do, the remnant of my representative term. One word only which my strength permits in conclusion, besides the grateful recollection I shall always cherish of the confidence and encouragement with which you have sustained me through a long career of public service, we shall still be bound together by common sentiments and common interests in the future as in the past. My constant prayers shall be addressed to heaven to make that future as propitious and glorious as heart can wish. But whatever it be, I share it with you. Whither thou goest, I will go; where thou lodgest, I will lodge; thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God; and where thou diest will I die, and there will I be buried.

Your friend and servant,
W. G. RIVES.

Richmond, March 1.

A GLANCE AT THE FUTURE—WHAT THE NORTH WILL DO WITH THE SOUTH IN CASE OF SUBJUGATION.

[From the Richmond Whig, March 2.]

He who does not see that the future history of the United States, should the South fail in this struggle, is to be a history of war until either Yankee ambition is subjugated by Yankee, is incapable of seeing anything. The only possible obstacle to this melancholy future of strife in an age supposed to be consecrated to the arts of peace, is the independence of the Southern Confederacy. It is with the resources of these States that the Yankees expect to fight their battles with England for Canada, and with France for Mexico. If there are any among us who believe that submission to the North would restore peace to us, they are, indeed, deceived. Instead of fighting the Yankees in defense of our homes and our rights, we should be forced to fight England in Canada, France in Mexico and Spain in Cuba. We should endure the double misery of losing our honor and our independence, while forced to sacrifice ourselves on the altar of Yankee vanity and ambition. While the soldiers of Grant and Sherman would return to peaceful homes or settle upon the confiscated lands of the South, the soldiers of Lee and Beauregard would be fighting to plant the Yankee flag on the frozen waters of the St. Lawrence or on the burning plains of Mexico. We should be in the armies of our Yankee masters precisely what the Irish are in the armies of England and the Hugarians in the armies of Austria.

THE INTERESTS OF VIRGINIA IN DANGER—CALL UPON THE LEGISLATURE TO MAINTAIN THEM.

[From the Richmond Examiner, March 2.]

There are always timid and short sighted people who, in critical emergencies, are afraid or incapable of looking a possible danger full in the face, and of taking timely measures for meeting an impending emergency. It is to be hoped that the present general assembly are not thus stricken with judicial blindness. Threatening dangers cannot be averted by closing the eyes firmly upon them. Children may drive away ghosts by this helpless expedient, but the duty of responsible men, charged with great public interests threatened with danger, cannot be discharged thus cheaply or summarily. It is high time that something were doing to provide for the protection and preservation of the interests and institutions of Virginia against the dangers which threaten them. This can only be done regularly, authoritatively, and effectually by calling into action the supreme powers of the commonwealth. Nearly all the States to the south of us are adopting this measure, and there is no one of them which is under so imperative a necessity for doing so as Virginia. It is certain that if she herself does not take care of her interests, they will not be looked after by any other guardian, and the question is whether the welfare of the Virginia people is to be provided for by her government while opportunity remains, or finally sacrificed with the same callous indifference with which it has been so long neglected.

CROWING OVER THE FALL OF CHARLESTON—WHAT WOULD BECOME OF THE SOUTH IF SUBJUGATED.

[From the Richmond Dispatch, March 2.]

The jubilation of the enemy over the fall of the little city of Charleston—a place which would scarcely make a good-sized ward of the city of New York—after a siege of four years, and an overwhelming preponderance of land and naval forces, is equal to that of the French when Napoleon, with 35 000 ragamuffins, whipped the whole of Europe. As the little Confederate bantam lies in the pit, its back to the earth and its face to the sky, the great big unconquerable roosters, gobblers, eagles, vultures and birds of every race, who have at last brought down the game little chicken, rend the air with their triumphant cries. They crowd round the diminutive carcass, turn it over and rip it open to see what it has got in its crop, and generally agree that such a terrific sublime achievement as the subjugation of that small bird was unparalleled in war. After this, let the Czar look to Cronstadt, and England to Gibraltar. If it requires only four years to take Charleston, how long could any stronghold of Europe resist the great and invincible fleets and armies of the all-conquering American nation? A Northern journal, somewhat envious of the glory which the diminutive seaport of Charleston has obtained, endeavors to detract from its merits by saying that the fortifications which have enabled it to hold out so long were originally constructed by the United States government. If that were true, it does not prove much for the United States; for the strongest of those fortifications, Fort Sumter, was taken by General Beauregard in a few hours; whereas, the United States required four years to retake it, and could not have taken it but for the evacuation of the city, in consequence of the unobstructed march of General Sherman through Georgia; and, after all, the Yankees taking Charleston, or taking Savannah, or taking any other city or section of the Southern Confederacy, is only doing, with a great amount of fuss and bloodshed, what they had done quietly and more effectually before the war, by the peaceful methods of trade and commerce. Not only Charleston, but the whole South, was taken a good many years ago, and to some purpose, when tariffs, coasting laws, and bounties, rendered every slaveholding State tributary to Northern manufacture and commerce; when Northern industry supplied every article of clothing, of household furniture, every agricultural implement in the South; when Northern books, Northern literature, and Northern theology wielded the scepter over our minds and souls. Whether it is a good bargain to exchange such an occupation as that for the dominion of brute force, we leave it to Northern ingenuity to calculate, when its passions have cooled down sufficiently to allow it to work out the sum. We are inclined to think that, even if successful in arms, it could never compel from a subjugated people the returns which are chiefly yielded by a contented and hopeful population.

THE SUBSTITUTE FOR THE NEGRO SOLDIER BILL NOT YET PASSED.

[From the Richmond Sentinel, March 2.]

The bill diminishing the number of exempts is not yet passed. That was the scheme relied upon to recruit our armies by those who opposed the employment of negro troops. This is the second day of March, and we have neither the one nor the other.

ATTEMPT TO FIRE THE STATE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE IN RICHMOND.

[From the Richmond Examiner, March 1.]

Between nine and ten o'clock on Monday night an alarm of fire arose from the discovery of fire in the State Tobacco Warehouse, corner of Seventh and Byrd streets, where is stored a large amount of leaf tobacco belonging to the State and Confederate Government and on private account. The tobacco was fired on the interior, but the flames were discovered by the private watchman before much damage was done, and the fire was suppressed before the fire department got upon the ground. A small quantity of tobacco was stolen in the confusion. We understand that, upon an investigation being made yesterday morning, it was ascertained that a great quantity of tar, wood and other combustibles had been piled in between the joist and the roof, and the mass then fired. From the contracted space in which the fire was kindled, the flames appear to have burned slowly and were easily suppressed. It is also said that the great bulk of the tobacco stored in the warehouse is owned on private account and fully insured. These circumstances, taken in connection, have excited the belief that the design was to destroy the tobacco and thus secure the insurance.

GENERAL FORREST REORGANIZING THE CAVALRY IN THE SOUTHWEST—GUERRILLAS DENOUNCED.

[From the Richmond Examiner, March 1.]

General Forrest is busy reorganizing all the cavalry in the district of Mississippi, East Louisiana, and West Tennessee. In his general orders he declares that the illegal organizations of cavalry prowling through the country under various authorities, not recognized as legitimate, or which have been by the proper authorities revoked, must be placed regularly and properly in the service, or driven from the country. He says these are, in many instances, nothing more nor less than roving bands of deserters, stragglers, horse-thieves and robbers, who consume the substance and appropriate the property of citizens without remuneration, and whose acts of lawlessness and crime demand a remedy, which he will not hesitate to apply, even to extermination.

REBUILDING OF THE WEST POINT ROAD TO ATLANTA—DALTON THE ONLY POINT IN NORTHERN GEORGIA HELD BY THE UNION TROOPS.

[From the Richmond Examiner, March 1.]

The West Point road is reported to be completed within nine miles of Atlanta. Dalton is the only fortified post now occupied by the enemy in North Georgia, and his force there is reported to consist of only two or three brigades. This shows of what value is Yankee "conquest," and by what frail tenure he holds the country he has overrun, where he is only able to place here and there a straggling garrison.

RE ENFORCEMENTS ON THE WAY TO GENERAL GRANT.

[From the Richmond Examiner, March 1.]

We have information that on Saturday last twenty-one transports, containing six thousand troops, left Alexandria for Fortress Monroe. Their destination is supposed to be Grant's lines.

SPEECH OF HON. ROBERT TOOMBS AT AUGUSTA.

Fellow Citizens: I come before you at the request of some of you to take counsel with you in reference to the state of the country. A large portion of the country has been overrun, and is liable to be overrun again. Despondency pervades the army and people to a great extent. It becomes us to determine what shall be done. Four years ago he had conceded resistance. Many a bright eye and heaving bosom that greeted him then are now cold in the grave; but, with all the lights before him, he would say to-day, onward with the revolution. Though thousands are dead, and many are despondent, thousands yet live willing and able to carry forward the great work. There was some doubt four year ago about the correctness of the principles upon which the revolution was based, but the enemy has thrown off the mask. The question to-day is not whether you shall own slaves, but whether you shall yourselves be slaves. With such an issue, if the prospect was ten times more gloomy, he would say, strike on, strike ever. There have been blunders and errors, but where everything that is dear to us and to posterity is at stake, is it not worth the best energies of all to make a renewed and vigorous eff

☞We will supply substitutes promptly. Principals should call at once, before prices advance further.

Notice to Country Subscribers.

In a short time we shall adopt a new system of mailing the Daily Democrat to the country. The name of each subscriber will be printed, and the time for which payment is made will be marked on the printed slip. Thus each subscriber will, as often as he receives the paper, see the condition of his account, the time for which he has paid being printed on the slip containing the address. This constant notification will remind all subscribers of the condition of their accounts, and we trust they will, in all cases, remit in time to prevent their names from being stricken from the list. No paper will be continued beyond the date paid for.

There are a number of our patrons in arrears. To all such we shall forward a statement of their accounts, and trust they will remit forthwith, as under the new system of mailing no paper will be forwarded to any one in arrears. We trust our friends will heed this notice and promptly forward their subscriptions.

AN ATTRACTION.—Almost everybody is aware of the power and quickness of electricity when developed in a storm, and nearly everybody is acquainted with the usefulness of that agent in the telegraph, medical and chemical decompositions—the first electricity being developed by electro magnets, the second by friction, and the third by galvanic batteries; yet much remains to be discovered, as electricity can be applied to many more useful purposes. It has already been tried to substitute steam on railroads and steamboats in France and England, and other countries, and this idea being yet in its infancy the genius of man will surely arrive at this cherished object. Until now, powerful electro magnets have been adopted, and electricity has been procured by galvanic batteries. We saw yesterday, in the show case of Mr. E Richter, on Third street, between Market and Jefferson streets, two diminutive engines of different patterns, that worked on the above principle. They prove quite an attraction to passers-by.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS—Wednesday, March 8. Edward Smith and Christ. Smith, burglariously entering the store of J. N. Simmons; discharged.

John Kinkead, drunk and disorderly conduct; fined $5.

Wm. Watkins, drunk and disorderly, and shooting at John Lynch, with intent to kill, but without wounding; continued until Thursday.

Fanny Ames, drunk and disorderly conduct; fined $5.

John Yeager, drunk and disorderly conduct; bail in $100 for three months.

SENT HERE FOR TRIAL.—Capt. A. C. Morris, company I, Eleventh Kentucky cavalry, who killed a man in or near Shelbyville, one year ago last September, was sent here yesterday from Lexington, Ky., to be tried by a military court-martial. It will be remembered that he made his escape from the military prison in this city but was afterwards recaptured.

John E. Warfield, company I, Forty-sixth Indiana, was also brought down a prisoner to be tried by a military commission. We did not learn upon what chargee he will be tried.

KILLING OF MR STEIN.—The remains of Mr. Stein, of this city, who was shot and killed in Covington a few days since, will arrive this morning and be buried this afternoon. Stein was laboring under a fit of insanity at the time he was shot and killed. It was a negro soldier who did it—two balls entering his breast, killing him instantly.

☞Miss St. Clair, who lectures on subjects connected with the education of young ladies, will, as by advertisement, lecture in a few days on "Marriage No Lottery."

As this lady has for the past three years been accustomed to public speaking in this and foreign countries, she will doubtless give an entertaining and instructive discourse.

A. WARD.—There is a gentleman named A. Ward traveling over the country, who has "a show," and can "speak a piece" to perfection. He is not good looking, but he is funny, and that is better than beauty. He will appear at the Masonic Temple, on Monday night. He has been to see Brigham Young, and will tell you all about it.

SCHOOL FAIR.—The Fair last night was very well attended. We hope it will be crowded to-night, and every night during the week. The ladies are endeavoring to make it as interesting as possible. Let all who would contribute to a good cause go to the School Fair, and spend an evening.

☞Fernelius calls disease an affection of the body, contrary to nature: a perturbation of its habits; a derangement of its courses. What disease is, sometimes eludes human intelligence, but some diseases are known—their origin, action and even their antidotes. Whoever has discovered an actual remedy for one disease, has done something for his race. Doctor Ayer has done more, for his medicines afford us the means to control and cure several dangerous disorders. We rarely speak on medical subjects, preferring to leave them to physicians, who understand them better. But such effects as are seen in our midst, on affections of the lungs, by Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on scrofulous complaints by his Sarsaparilla, and on the several complaints that they cure by Ayer's Pills, should not be ignored.—[Keokuk (Iowa) Journal. d&w

☞A little Sunday School girl, of Shelbyville, Ky., desired to do all she could for the homeless women and children from the South now in Louisville. It was not in her power to send the Relief Commission a sum of money; but, decorating the parlor, there was a beautiful painting—a fruit piece—the work of her own fingers, and valued by her far beyond its real worth. After quite a struggle in her mind between selfishness and benevolence, the true spirit gained the throne and the picture was sent to Rev. Mr. Sedwick, of this city, to be sold to the highest bidder and the avails to "be given to the poor refugees."

The picture is at Hegan's store, Main street, between Fourth and Fifth. To start the matter and encourage such noble deeds, ten dollars is offered.

JEFFERSONVILLE ITEMS.—The refugee who cut Ed. Mason was examined before the new Mayor of Jeffersonville, and was discharged, his Honor finding some excuse legal for so doing.

The authorities are making a laudable effort to clean the streets of the long accumulation of filth that has made the streets almost impassable.

The back water from the freshet has done considerable damage in Jeffersonville. The refugees who had "squatted" on the low lands were compelled to "get up and dust" for higher ground.

NEGROES VS. GUERRILLAS.—On Monday night Bill Hughes, with eighteen guerrillas, endeavored to enter New Haven, Ky. Six negroes fired at them, and they returned the fire before they left. The guerrillas can't fight negro soldiers after night—they can't see them. Hughes was about one mile and a half from there yesterday.

☞Francis W. Duncan, company D, Twelfth Kentucky cavalry, Wm. Harrison, company E, Twenty seventh Kentucky infantry, and Wm. Price, company H, Twenty-seventh Kentucky infantry, all Federal prisoners, were turned over to the Provost Marshal yesterday for safe keeping.

REPORTED.—The following rebel deserters reported at the Provost Marshal's office yesterday, and took the oath of allegiance: W. C. Glibreath, Jefferson county, Ky; R. P. Seay, Jefferson county, Ky.; W. W. Blakeman, Bedford county, Tenn., and B. R. Philpot, Meade county, Ky.

☞Sixteen members of the Seventh Pennsylvania cavalry, who committed depredations some time ago upon the citizens of Evansville, Mauckport and Brandenburg, were sent to Lexington yesterday, to be tried before a military commission for their outrageous conduct on those occasions.

BARRACKS.—Business was not very lively at the above "place of amusement" yesterday. One hundred convalescents arrived. Five hundred and sixty-five men were sent to Nashville, fifty-three to New York, twenty-four to Washington City and three to Indianapolis.

LATE SOUTHERN INTELLIGENCE.—We give an unusual amount of space to the budget of late Southern news on our first page this morning, that our readers may see the tone of the rebellion as spoken by prominent citizens and the press of the South.

☞Bob Elliot, company K, Thirtieth Wisconsin, was arrested as a deserter yesterday Abe Sheckell, company G, Sixty-sixth Indiana, was also arrested in Jeffersonville.

☞"Love's Block," occupied by S. Barker & Co., dry goods store, and Louis Tripp, as a music store, has been newly painted. It presents a refreshing appearance.

SENT FOR TRIAL.—Thomas W. Gillenwater, co. C, Thirty-seventh Ky, and Berry Hurt, co. F, Seventeenth Ky. regiments, were sent to Lexington yesterday for trial.

☞Kate Casey, Mrs. Meseman and Mary Coleman were sent to the Headquarters of Department of Female Whisky Sellers, i. e., Female Military Prison.

MISS LAWRIE'S BENEFIT.—Notwithstanding the bad weather yesterday afternoon, Miss Lawrie's benefit at the Louisville Theater was a success.

☞Wetzel furnished us, last night, with Cincinnati papers of yesterday. He is a fast youth.

RECRUITS.—Fifty five recruits arrived here yesterday from Columbus, Ohio.

City Council—The Portland Railroad Question—Meeting To-Night.

In accordance with the call of the Mayor, the General Council met at 7½ o'clock last evening. To day being the end of the fiscal year, the meeting was called for the purpose of appropriating money to pay the expenses of the past year, which appropriation was made. Right here we would state that the finances of our city are in a most excellent condition, there being a surplus of over $25,000 in the treasury above all expenses.

A message was received from the Mayor inclosing a contract proposed between the Louisville and Portland Railroad and the city for the extension of their road as far as Wenzel street. The contract is somewhat similar to the contract now existing between the Louisville City Railway Company and the city. It is proposed to run the road double track from the corner of Thirteenth and Main out Thirteenth to Market, and thence along Market street to Wenzel. The Mayor, in his message, recommended the passage of an ordinance allowing the privilege asked. In the Board of Aldermen the grant was allowed by a vote of five to two. In the lower Board it was amended so as to read "provided that said company shall have its property taxed in the same manner and to the same extent as the Louisville City Railway Company." In this Board the entire matter was referred to a special committee, consisting of Messrs. Smith, Armstrong, Spaulding, Orrill and Robinson.

At the last meeting of the Council an ordinance passed the lower Board abolishing the offices of tax collectors and creating in their place the office of Tax Receiver. In the upper Board this ordinance was defeated last night by a tie vote.

The Council will meet again to night, when an ordinance will be introduced increasing the police force and uniforming the same. The Council will also, no doubt, appoint a day for the election of police. These are matters of some importance and a full attendance is desired.

Amusements.

LOUISVILLE THEATER.—The charming actress and daring equestrienne, Miss Leo Hudson, was again greeted last night with a crowded house. The play of "Mazeppa" passed off very pleasantly. In this part Miss Leo Hudson is given up to be without an equal. The piece will be repeated to-night.

WOOD'S THEATER.—Last night the great drama of "Fantine" was produced for the first time, Miss Maggie Mitchell appearing as Fantine. The piece is full of thrilling incidents, and furnishes a fine scope for the display of Miss Maggie's talents. This is the last night but two of Miss Maggie Mitchell in our city, and as this great piece is to be repeated, we look for another crowded house.

VARIETIES.—The Varieties was visited last night by another very large audience who went there delighted and came away more so. Go to-night if you want to forget the war, draft, hard times and your sweetheart, or, if you don't wish to forget her, take her along with you. The Minstrels are playing to good houses now, and play well too.

STARTED OUT.—A refugee who had been employed on a farm a few miles from the city went off with his employer's fine horse, saddle and bridle night before last. He was joined by another chap, both of whom it is supposed have gone in the guerrilla business.

☞All the rivers and creeks south of Nashville are falling, and the bridges on the railroads are being repaired of the damages sustained by the floods.

☞Trains on the Ohio and Mississippi railroad have been stopped on account of high water. Thought they missed connection yesterday.

☞Yesterday was an ugly, wet, sultry, disagreeable day. Business was dull, and news of importance scarce. Military matters were dull.

☞We understand that the guerrillas cut the telegraph wires above Frankfort and Pleasureville night before last.

☞Remember the big meeting at the courthouse on Friday night.

CARRSVILLE, KY., March 3, 1865.

Editor of the Louisville Democrat:

DEAR SIR: We see that you have copied from the Cairo Democrat a statement that the steamer Victory, on the 18th of February, was fired into by a party of guerrillas at Crittenden's coal mines, thirty miles above Smithland, on the Ohio river.

Now, Sir, the above report is a falsehood. The mines above referred to are not Crittenden's, but Trabue's. There never was a steamboat fired into in this vicinity. There have not been any guerrillas in Carrsville or its neighborhood since September, 1863.

The inhabitants of Carrsville and its neighborhood for miles around are peaceful, law-abiding citizens. At the coal mines the flag has been flying since November, and when it wears out another will be put in its place. It is the only place, south of the Ohio, between Louisville and New Orleans, where it does fly unguarded by soldiers.

We hope you will give this a place in your paper and render to our neighborhood the credit it deserves for its morality and loyalty.

Respectfully yours, H.

Uniform Police.

Messrs. Editors of the Louisville Democrat:

As the author of the proposed ordinance in reference to uniforming the police of the city, I wish to contradict any report that may have gained currency "that any of the present candidates for the Mayoralty" has been consulted as to its propriety, "or favor its adoption," but, so far as I have any knowledge on the subject, "all oppose it"—and that's what's the matter. Yours, &c.,

J. M. ARMSTRONG,
Councilman Seventh Ward.

HAVING THOROUGHLY CHANGED THE OLD house and fitted it up for our business in a style heretofore unknown in this city, we will devote our time exclusively to the burial of the dead, for which purpose we will keep constantly on hand a large assortment of

I. C. SHULER & CO.'S

Justly celebrated Air-tight Galvanized Wrought Iron Caskets and Cases, which, for lightness, durability, style and finish, surpass anything before offered to the public.

We also keep on hand CRANE, BREED & CO.'s and W. M. RAYMOND & CO.'S Metallic Burial Caskets and Cases. Also, a large assortment of Wooden Coffins and Coffin Mountings. All calls attended to promptly night or day, in the city or country, by one of the firm in person. The senior partner of this house has the exclusive agency for the sale of I. C. SHULER & CO.'S Caskets and Cases in the Eastern division of Kentucky, commencing at the mouth of Salt River (excepting some three or four counties where they are now sold), and is prepared to furnish Undertakers with them, by calling at our office, corner of Third and Jefferson streets.

What the Illustrious Abernethy Said.

"Well, sir, what's the matter?" said Abernethy, the great English Surgeon, to a cadaverous looking patient, who had called to consult him. "Oh, nothing serious," was the reply, "my stomach and liver are out of order, that's all." "Do you call that nothing serious?" said Abernethy; "I tell you, sir, that when these two organs are out of order, as you call it, there is not a square inch of the body that is in a healthful condition." Nothing can be more true, and therefore it is of the very highest importance to keep the stomach and liver in a vigorous condition. If one is weak and the other irregular in its action, tone and control them with HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS—the most genial vegetable restorative and alterative that has ever been administered as a cure for Dyspepsia and Liver Disease. It is recommended by distinguished surgeons and physicians of the United States Army, by officers of the Army and Navy, by our first authors, by eminent clergymen, in fact, by thousands of the most intelligent of every class, as an unequaled protective against epidemic and malarious diseases, and as a perfectly innocuous, but at the same time powerful, invigorant and alterative. fe27 d2w

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest, per annum known as the

SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.

These Notes are issued under date of August 15th, 1864, and are payable three years from that time, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

GOLD-BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov., which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest amounts to

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| One cent per day on a $50 note. | | | |
| Two cents | " | " | $100 " |
| Ten | " | " | $500 " |
| Twenty | " | " | $1000 " |
| One dollar | " | " | $5000 " |

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. This is

THE ONLY LOAN IN MARKET

Now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

THE GREAT

WEBER PIANO FORTE.

THE DIRECTORS OF THE NATIONAL PIANO FORTE ASSOCIATION TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO announce to the public that, after a thorough and familiar comparison of the relative merits of the various Pianos which have been allowed a place in their Warerooms, consisting of WEBER'S, STEINWAY'S, CHICKERING'S, BRADBURY'S, etc., etc., besides a careful comparison with all other makers pretending to excel, a candid statement of the result compels them to say that the

WEBER PIANO FORTE

IS PRE-EMINENTLY THE BEST PIANO IN AMERICA

And therefore not excelled by any in the world.

While the Steinway Piano is justly celebrated for its sweetness of tone, the Chickering Piano for its brilliancy, and the Prigg and other Pianos for their power, the Weber Piano combines all these desirable qualities in the highest degree, and is the only known instrument of which it may with truth be said that in it are united the six great qualities of a perfect instrument, viz: GREAT POWER, SWEETNESS OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, with an ELASTIC TOUCH, PERFECT EQUALITY OF TONE and DURABILITY.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS—1865.—Edward Mollenhauer, President; Theodore Moss and Louis Schreiber, Vice-Presidents; John C. White, Secretary; J. F. Williams, Treasurer.

XXXVIIIth Congress—Second Session

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March 8.

The Senate standing committees have appointed, the following members being chairmen of the prominent ones: Sumner, foreign affairs; Wilson, military affairs; Fessenden, finance; Grimes, naval; Chandler, commerce; Collamer, post office.

Lane, of Kansas, moved the question be taken on the reception of the credentials of Mr. Snow, Senator from Arkansas.

Davis opposed it, contending that Snow occupies the position of an alien enemy according to the laws.

A message was received from the President, when Sumner moved extra session.

Lane wanted a vote on the Arkansas case.

Grimes said they could resume that question after referring the President's nominations to proper committees of the executive session.

When the doors were reopended Davis resumed his remarks against the admission of Arkansas Senators, and after further debate resumbed his objection to the credentials, which were referred to the Judiciary committee.

The Senate at 2 o'clock adjourned.

EVENING SESSION.

A Committee of Mines was added to the standing committees of the Senate.

Mr. Anthony submitted the following list of standing committees, which was adopted:

Foreign Relations—Messrs. Sumner, Chairman; Doolittle, Harris, Foote, Wade, Davis and Johnson.

Finance—Messrs. Fessenden, Sherman, Howe, Cowan, Van Winkle, Henderson and Guthrie.

Commerce—Messrs. Chandler, Morrill, Morgan, Sprague, Lane, Nesmith and Doolittle.

Manufactures—Messrs. Sprague, Sherman, Dixon, Pomeroy, Randall and Wright.

Agriculture—Messrs Sherman, Lane, Harlan, Wilson and Guthrie.

Military Affairs—Wade, Lane, Howard, Nesmith, Morgan, Clark and Brown.

Naval Affairs—Grimes, Anthony, Cragin, Hendricks and Ramsey.

Postoffices—Collamer, Dixon, Ramsey, Connees, Buckalew and Van Winkle.

Public Lands—Pomeroy, Morrill, Sprague, Hendricks and Wright.

Indian Affairs—Doolittle, Lane, Nesmith, Foote, Trumbull and Buckalew.

Revolutionary Claims—Ramsey, Chandler, Wilson, Nesmith and Wright.

Claims—Clark, Morrill, Wade, Willy, Henderson, Riddle and Yates.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the Arkansas question.

Mr. Grimes moved the Senate go into executive session, and refer the communication for the present. They could then in open session resume the Arkansas question.

The Senate then went into executive session. After a short time the doors werere reopened.

Mr. Davis resumed his remarks, saying that the Supreme Court unanimously agreed that this being a civil war the United States is entitled to every belligerent right as if a foreign war existed. The President, Congress and Supreme Court have recognized this war in which belligerent right attach to the United States, this led him to the conclusion that applicants from insurrectionary States, which by the President's proclamation, act of Congress, decision of the Supreme Court, is declared a portion of the party to civil war, together with every resident of Aarkansas is alien enemy to the government of the United States and no more entitled to a seat than Toombs, from Georgia.

Mr. Grimes replied to Mr. Davis' remarks. Quite a lengthy discussion ensued. Mr. Lane of Kansas, and several others participating.

Mr. Trumbull did not see any difficulty in receiving any respectful papers, as thereby the Senate did not commit itself to the object proposed.

Mr. Sumner said three points, viz: 1st Credentials. 2d. To receive and lay them on the table. 3d. To receive and refer them. He was indifferent as to the course the Senate should take. A refusal to receive would have the effect, if all the candidates were paid mileage compensation, to draw large numbers of them here and thus deplete the Treasury.

Lane replied that when he came here as a claimant to represent a free State under the Topeka convention his credentials were received, and although not admitted did not ask pay and mileage. The free State conise originated the republican party and helped to overthrow the proslavery organization. If heresy is to be insisted on, that traitors are to be construction of States and insurrectionary States are outside the Union, our party will be overthrown as proslavery was overthrown.

Mr Sumner suggested that the Senate put its foot on the matter of mileage and compensation. The mileage of Senators from Louisiana and Arkansas would be about eight thousand dollars.

Mr. Howard said the Senate ought not to receive the credentials, because the the so-called State of Arkansas did not exist in law, or in fact. The credentials were referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. Sumner offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That where a State has been declared to be in insurrection no person can be recognized at Senator from such State or as claimant of a seat as Senator from such State until after the occurrence of three several conditions: First—Cessation of all armed hostility to the United States within the limits of each States. Second—Adoption of a Constitution republican in form and not repugnant to the Constitution and laws of the United States. Third—An act of Congress declaring the people of such State entitled to representment in the Congress of the United States. Laid over.

The chair laid before the Senate a message from the President enclosing a letter from the Secretary of State. The Senate had requested the President to return joint resolutions prohibiting the granting of lands to railroads.

The official reply is that the right of either House, at a subsequent Congress, to recall any bill or resolution may be regarded as questionable under the act of 1793, which makes no provision for any case similar to it.

The law requires copies of the original of all documents to be filed in the State Department, when not otherwise provided for to keep such papers, rather than to return them to the Senate, as has been the practice.

Mr. Lane offered a resolution to pay the claimants of seats from Arkansas and Louisiana. Referred to Committee on Contingent Expenses.

The Senate then adjourned.

SANDY HOOK, March 8.

The steamship Cato, from Liverpool 25th and Queenstown 26th, has arrived. Her dates are three days later.

The Army and Navy Gazette says the Confederate government has countermanded the large orders for torpedoes.

The London Times says the peace conference makes it more evident than ever that neutrality is the only policy for England.

It is asserted that France has given the American government assurances that no Mexican territory has been ceded.

Bullion in the Bank of England has increased £46,000.

Paris, Feb. 25.—Bourse closed dull at 67f 75c.

The London Times has an editorial on the official acts of the recent conference and points significantly to Seward's propositon for a combined effort at some extrinsic policy or scheme. It concedes that the North came best out of the affair.

The Index continues its efforts to frighten England into a recognition of the South by pointing out that Lee's army is for the present the defense of Canada, and from the uncertain tenure of that defense it infers that they intend to abandon the coast or have faith in an early peace.

In the House of Lords, Granville said that nothing had been done towards the establishment of a new colony in Hudson's Bay and the recovery of the territory and thought it was not desirable, pending the Confederate negotiations in Canada.

The funeral of Cardinal Wiseman had taken place with much pomp. The procession was three miles long.

The Paris correspondent of the Times gives a report that France has assured the American Government that there is no truth in the reported cession of the Mexican territory. The transaction is a mere lien on the products of certain mines, as security for French expenses. The letter also repudiates the rumors of the contemplated recognition of the South by Napoleon.

Liverpool, February 25.—Flour dull. Wheat slow with slight improvement over Tuesday last; red 7s 9d to 8s 4d. Corn steady and a shade dearer. Beef more active but prices easier. Pork scarce and firm. Bacon steady. Demand for Butter moderate. Cheese firm. Lard dull. Sugars opened quiet but closed firmer. Coffee quiet. Rice quiet. Molasses inactive. Petroleum steady.

London, February 25.—Breadstuffs unchanged. Red Wheat 38s to 41s. Sugars fully 6d dearer. Coffee steady. Tea without change.

NEWBERN, N. C., March 1.

Intelligence from North Carolina papers indicate that both sections are concentrating their forces upon her borders for the final struggle.

A Raleigh paper says: The people of this city will hear guns of the great and last battle of the American rebellion, and the traditionground of the old North State will be the common grave yard of State rights and State liness, without which no attempt at secession could have been made. The existence of State lines will afford sufficient pretext to prompt the great interest of one section to revolt against the government of the other section and refuse to sacrifice their local interest. All history demonstrates the fact that personal interest is paramount to the life of the army, and to make us one family, one people and obliterate these desires, we must abolish State lines, which will give us a controlling head, to which all loyal interest will be attracted—a republican government which will be the embodiment of free institutions—a country in which the people can't run riot and plunge into extremes under the cloak of Democracy.

The Raleigh Progress says that the federals are concentrating a force of 40,000 at Newbern which will soon be ready to strike Lee's army in conjunction with Sherman's forces.

PHILADELPHIA, March 8.

A special from Washington to the Bulletin gives the following news from the Richmond papers of March 6th. They contain no military news of importance from North Carolina or Virginia:

The Enquirer of the 6th, in the course of a long editorial, says: The country turns indignant from Congress, which for four months has set in Richmond, and day after day witnessed the military strength of the Confederacy dwindling away, though Lee has appealed to and implored it to use great military strength of negroes for the defense of our country. Yet to this date of the session it has wholly failed to adopt measures for the salvation of the country.

In the rebel Congress a resolution of the General Assembly of North Carolina, protesting against the arming of slaves in any emergency, without the consent of the States, was presented.

Gen. Canby and staff leave here to-day for the vicinity of Mobile.

Acting Rear Admiral Thatcher arrived here yesterday, and to-day he assumed command of the West Gulf squadron vice Commodore Palmer. The latter officer will command at New Orleans.

The steamer Arizona, just fitted up as flag ship, was destroyed by fire thirty miles below here on Monday. Four of the crew perished and several officers lost all their effects. The Arizona was one of the finest vessels in the fleet and her loss will be severely felt.

The rebel general assembly adjourned on the 14th ult. after three weeks session.

Manufactories are started at different parts of the State.

The bill for the relief of illegally disfranchised people of Louisiana passed both Houses.

Cotton easier.

MEMPHIS, March 4.

A fire broke out in the press room of the Bulletin office to-day which was soon extinguished. The loss, mainly by water, will probably reach $20,000, which was covered by insurance. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

Eight bodies were recovered from the wreck of the steamer Watson, which was sunk near Napoleon. Twenty-seven persons are still missing.

The Arkansas river is bank full and still rising.

Guerrillas continue their outrages outside our lines. Gen Washburn has sent an expedition after them.

Major Hawley, 52d U. S. Infantry, is assigned to the command of all the forces west of the Mississippi river.

NEW YORK, March 8.

Orders have been received from Gen. Fry to commence the draft here on the 15th instant, and in pursuance of these orders Assistant Adjutant General Branson, now acting as Provost Marshal General, has issued instructions to the Provost Marshal to be ready for the draft, as there is but a small number of men being raised daily toward filling the large quota due from this city.

Gen. E. W. Hinks has been appointed Provost Marshal General and Military Commander of Harrisburg and Major Ledge is to assume command of the office of Provost Marshal General of this district.

Railway speculation firm at the Stock Exchange this morning, and rather better on the Hudson, Michigan Southern and Illinois Central. There is but little speculation and movement and few time transactions. It is about equally divided between the bulls and bears. At the second Board railroad speculation was heavy, and lower prices were made throughout the call, with strong pressure to sell. Government securities quite active at closing rates at yesterday evening's price. State bonds quite, without any marked change. Miscellaneous list heavy, and generally quiet and firm, with Cumberland as the favorite. The gold room was devoid of interest; the market ruled very dull, and the fluctuations were a ¼ per cent. Money easier. Petroleum stocks were quite active at the following prices: Oceanic 415, Excelsior 8, Cherry Run 88, Rynd Farm 610, Webster 185, Buchanan 185. Petroleum dull and heavy at 41 to 42 for crude, and 67 to 68 for refined in bond, and 87 to 88 for free.

NEW YORK, March 8.

At a meeting of the ladies at the Cooper Institute this evening addresses were made by Mrs. Hoge and Mrs. Livermore, of Chicago, in behalf of the Northwestern Sanitary Fair in Chicago on the 1st of June. The object of the meeting was to aid the fair.

The Herald's Wilmington special says: An interesting ceremony took place at the headquarters of Gen. Schofield, the occasion being the presentation of medals to officers and soldiers of the 23d corps for merit in duty and valor on the field of battle. The following are the names of the recipients:—Capt. J. V. Kelly, 104th Ohio; Capt. J. H. Brown, 19th Ky.; Corp. W. H. Bowhill, 104th Ohio; Corp. Notice to Hon. J. F. Bullitt, Chief Justice of Kentucky.

Geo. T. Wood, Alfred Allen, R. J. Browne, S. E. DeHaven and Wm. R. Thompson were appointed a committee by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly, to offer the following resolution:

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That inasmuch as a committee of the House of Representatives have reported that they had heard evidence conducing strongly to show that Joshua F. Bullitt, a Judge of the Court of Appeals for this Commonwealth, was guilty of belonging to a treasonable association, it is therefore the opinion of this Legislature that the said Bullitt's conduct should be investigated; and that to this end a committee of five members of the House of Representatives shall be appointed to propose resolutions addressing him out of office, to be reported on the third Tuesday in May next; that it shall be the duty of this committee to cause the attendance of witnesses on process to be issued by said committee on that day, who shall be examined in presence of the two Houses, in joint session, by a member of the Legislature, selected by joint ballot of the two Houses, to conduct the examination, who is also to appear throughout in support of the prosecution; that the committee shall also give personal notice to Judge Bullitt of the sitting of the Legislature, and of his trial, if he is to be found in the State, or by advertisement in the Louisville Journal and Democrat in the event of his absence; and that he be permitted to appear in answer to the charges in person, or by counsel, at the bar of the Legislature in joint session; that said Bullitt may have process to procure the attendance of witnesses at the investigation; that the testimony shall be taken down in writing by some competent person, to be selected by the Speakers of the two Houses.

The Hon. Joshua F. Bullitt is notified to appear as directed by the above resolution. The committee will meet in the city of Louisville, at the Louisville Hotel, on the 30th day of March, 1865, and continue in session a reasonable time, to issue summons, if required, and perform the duties of the resolution.

All persons knowing the names of witnesses against Judge Bullitt are requested to furnish the names and residence of the witnesses to the chairman of the committee.

HEADQUARTERS DEP'T OF KENTUCKY, } LOUISVILLE, KY., Feb. 25, 1865. }

General Orders No. 4:

Reliable evidence has reached these headquarters that emissaries of the rebel government are engaged in recruiting for their exhausted armies in the State of Kentucky. Appeals are again made to the young men of the State to disregard their duty and risk their lives and honor in a wicked and desperate cause, while men who have deserted the rebel service, and are now peaceably at their homes, are required to rejoin their commands, again encounter the perils of treason under the threatened penalty of betrayal to the Federal authorities, who they are taught to believe will treat them as outlaws and guerrillas.

To counteract these efforts to mislead the men who have, in good faith, deserted the rebel service, all deserters from the rebel armies, now in this department, will, within thirty days from date, report themselves to the Provost Marshal of the county in which they reside for registry. And all persons who may hereafter desert from the rebel armies, and come into this department, will, within five days after their arrival, report themselves for the same purpose.

Provost Marshals will record the report of all persons presenting themselves under this order, will register the names, age, residence, and the particular military organization from which they have deserted. Such registry will be regarded by the military authorities of this department as a distinct renunciation of all further connection with the rebel government, and as entitling the registered person, who may demean himself as a peaceable citizen, to military protection.

Persons who refuse to present themselves for registry, as required by this order, will be understood as adhering to the rebel government, and, if captured, will be treated as spies, guerrillas, or otherwise, according to the circumstances of the case.

To the Citizens of Louisville.

The committee appointed by the General Council to attend to the disbursement of the bounty fund beg leave to call the attention of the citizens to the following facts:

The fund, $900,000, appropriated by the city, is only sufficient to pay bounty to 6912 3 men. The amount to the date contributed by the $25 subscribers to the bounty fund is $39,200, which will only pay bounties to 140 men. Thus, the two funds combined will pay for but 797 men. There have been already enlisted to the credit of the city 442 men, and there are now 450 men more who offer to enlist. When they shall be enlisted, it will make the number credited to Louisville 892 men, which is 95 men more than the two funds (as at present) combined will pay. Besides, even if this number of 892 men should be paid, there would still be a deficiency of 366 men; and unless this deficiency is made up the draft will be ordered. In addition to the 450 men, now about to be enlisted, others can be procured; they are daily offering and there will be no difficulty in procuring enough and more than enough men to fill the city's quota and avoid the draft.

Let the citizens, therefore, come forward at once and subscribe to the fund, so that we may not have to turn away the volunteers for want of funds to pay the bounty. This we must do, unless the citizens promptly come forward to morrow; for, as before observed, we have already more men engaged than the fund will now pay. Let every citizen take an interest in the matter, and not be satisfied alone with subscribing, but let him urge others to come forward and subscribe, and not cease his work till enough money is raised to pay off the city's quota.

Notice.

The bonds of the city of Louisville, to the amount of $300,000, authorized to be issued to raise a bounty fund, will be ready for sale as soon as they can be printed and filled up, which will be in a few days.

The bonds are for $1,000 each, with coupons attached for semi-annual payment of interest; one hundred of the bonds being payable ten years after date, and the other hundred payable twenty years after date.

That the citizens of Kentucky, especially of Louisville, may have an opportunity of making an investment in the purchase of the bonds to such amount as they may wish, those who desire to purchase will please at once address the Mayor of the city, giving their names and residence, the number and character of the bonds proposed to be bought, and the highest price they are willing to pay therefor. This invitation for proposals is not, however, limited to citizens of Kentucky.

MEDICAL.

DR. SEELYE'S
LIQUID
CATARRH REMEDY
CURE WARRANTED IF DIRECTIONS ARE FOLlowed. Single Bottle will last a month—to be used three times a day.

Symptoms.

The symptoms of Catarrh are at first very slight. Persons find they have a cold, that they have frequent attacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition, the nose may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, afterwards thick and adhesive may ensue.

As the disease becomes chronic, the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of smell is lessened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place.

Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is, that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a thick or slimy mucus, which has fallen from the head during the night. When this takes place the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should lose no time in arresting it.

The above are but few of the many Catarrhal symptoms. Write for our pamphlet describing fully all symptoms; it will be sent free to any address.

Call for SEELYE'S CATARRH REMEDY and take no other. Address DR. D. H. SEELYE & CO., Freeport, Ill.

DR. SEELYE'S
BRONCHIAL SYRUP,
AN UNFAILING REMEDY FOR
Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Hoarseness and Irritation of the Bronchial Tubes or Lungs, Tickling in the Throat, and Croup.
This Syrup is especially beneficial in affections of the Throat and Bronchial Tubes, caused by Catarrh, greatly assisting in its permanent cure when used in connection with the Remedy. If taken in time it never fails to cure the severest cases of Croup.
Being agreeable to the taste, safe for children, speedy in its effects, giving strength to the voice and lungs, it will soon find its way into every family in the land. Price 25 per bottle.

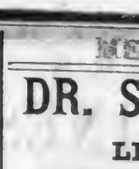
Galen's Head Dispensary.


ESTABLISHED IN 1850, AND Chartered by the Legislature of Kentucky, for the treatment of VENEREAL DISEASES,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
And all Affections of the Urinary and Generative Organs of both sexes.
Just published,
A PRIVATE MEDICAL TREATISE
ON VENEREAL DISEASES, INCLUDING GONORrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, Stricture, Gravel, Stone, Rupture, Piles, Fistula, Urinary Deposits, and all Diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder, Prostate Gland, and Seminal Vesicles, and their treatment, including a chapter on FEMALE DISEASES, with observations on marriage and the prevention of conception. Containing a Treatise on SELF ABUSE, spermatorrhœa, Sexual and Nervous Debility, impotency and Impotence, in both sexes; the effects of these diseases on the body and mind, and the Author's new and improved method of treatment, the only successful method of cure. With an exposition of QUACKERY. This work is not a quack advertisement but a Warning and a Guide for married and single. It is the only book extant that gives the treatment of all the above diseases, in plain English, with full directions for self-treatment and contains much valuable information not proper to be published in a public notice. The work contains 300 pages, and 100 pictures and engravings of the above diseases, sent to any address in a sealed wrapper, on receipt of one dollar. Those afflicted with any of the above diseases, before placing themselves under the treatment of any one of the worthless quacks that infest this city, would do well to read this work.
TO PATIENTS.—We devote our entire time to the treatment of all the above diseases, by the most improved methods, as practiced in the best French, English and American hospitals. Our Dispensary is the only institution of the kind in America which has been established by a special charter, and this fact should give it a preference over the various quacks of doubtful character to be found in all large cities.
PATIENTS AT A DISTANCE.—By sending a brief statement of their symptoms, will receive a Blank Chart, containing a list of questions, our terms for the course of treatment, &c. Medicines sent to any part of the country to cure any case at home free from damage or curiosity. All communications private and confidential.

DR. GATES'
PRIVATE MEDICAL DISPENSARY,

THOSE AFFLICTED WITH any disease of a PRIVATE NATURE, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Primary or Secondary Syphilis, Seminal Weakness, Sexual Debility, or any disease of the Genital or Urinary Organs, or person suffering in mind or body from the effects of Self-abuse, before imparting the secret to any one should first read our New Treatise on Sexual Debility and diseases of the Genital Organs of both sexes sent by mail to any address in a sealed envelope, on receipt of one three cent stamp.
TO THE LADIES.—We are agents for Mad. Caprani's FEMALE MONTHLY PILLS, a safe and effectual remedy for all female diseases, such as Irregularities, Obstructions of the Menses Whites, &c. Price by mail, $1 and one three cent stamp.
CAUTION.—These Pills should not be taken during pregnancy, as they are sure to produce miscarriage.
Also, for M. LA CROIX FRENCH PREVENTIVE POWDERS. By their use married ladies may limit the number of their offspring at pleasure without the least danger of injury to health. Price by mail, $2 and two three cent stamps.
Best quality of FRENCH MALE SAFES, at 50 cents each, or $5 per dozen; sent by mail on receipt of price.
Persons wishing to consult us personally on any of the above diseases, or to procure Pills or Powders, will find us at our office, north-east corner of Third and Market streets. Private entrance on Third street, from 8 A. M. to 1 P. M., and from 3 to 8 P. M.; Sundays from 8 to 11 A. M. Consultation rooms entirely private. Secrecy in all cases invariable. AN INDIAN'S REMEDY.
CLEANSING AND TONIC BITTERS.
R. A. SHRADER, NO. 210 MARKET STREET, NORTH side, a few doors above Brook, is the proprietor and manufacturer of the "PERFILLEBATING BITTERS," an Indian Remedy that, for the cure of all affections of the Kidneys and Liver, Dropsy, Secondary Syphilis or ordinary Cuticle Eruptions, and as a general Purifier of the Blood, is unsurpassed. This Bitters has effected many permanent cures in the most obstinate and long standing cases that had baffled medical treatment until they were pronounced hopeless. Those afflicted would do well to try this superior remedy. Mr. Shrader can show the recommendations and certificates of well known citizens who have been relieved and cured by its use.
Call and get it and try it. There is no mistake about it. It is a sovereign remedy in diseases of the Kidneys, Liver and blood. my30 dtf
